

Questions to Ask Videographers

1. Who exactly will be shooting my wedding?
2. What type of equipment will you be using to video my wedding?
3. How many cameras do you use to video weddings?
4. What type of microphone do you use?
5. What type of editing do you do?
6. How many hours of coverage do you provide?
7. What is your general wedding shooting schedule?
8. Do you include editing, music, and titles in your quoted price?
9. Can I buy the unedited master tape?
10. How much do additional tapes cost?
11. What exactly will the final tape be like?
12. When will I receive my final tape?
13. Do you charge for mileage between the wedding and reception sites?
14. Are there any other extra charges that might be added?
15. Do you bring back-up equipment in case of a problem?
16. Will you need any special lighting or electrical outlets?
17. Are you familiar with my ceremony and reception sites?
18. Have you ever shot a wedding in these locations before?
19. Will you attend the rehearsal to discuss the best shots and angles?
20. Will you be at the ceremony site ahead of time to discuss the best shots and angles?
21. Can I see a copy of a video tape that you have done recently?
22. Are there any photographers in town that you work well with?
23. Have you had any problems with any particular photographers in town?